

[Hutchinson, Eliza]

DEATHS.

In the village of Orleans (Phelps,) on the 29th ult., Mrs. ELIZA, consort of Thomas C. Hutchinson, Esq., in the 31st year of her age.

Mrs. H. was amiable in life, resigned in death, and has gone to share in the spiritual blessings of the paradise of God. She has left, in the very prime of her life and usefulness, an affectionate husband and six beloved children, to lament her departure—to cherish her memory and her virtues while they live, and to imitate her good examples. We would feelingly invoke the comforting influences of the gospel to rest upon their hearts, till they too shall be called to the haven of uninterrupted rest and enjoyment.

Her funeral was attended in the Baptist church at Orleans on the 30th ult. where the invaluable consolations of divine truth were tendered to a crowded congregation of mourners and sympathizing friends, by the writer.
