HOWARD HUTT, ILL 3 YEARS, PASSES AWAY

DOLGEVILLE—Howard C. Hutt, 67, died shortly before midnight Friday at his home, of complications. He had been unable to work for the past three years. He was last employed at the Remington Arms plant in Ilion.

Mr. Hutt was born July 9, 1880, in Kentville, Nova Scotia. He had been a resident of Dolgeville for the past 31 years, coming here from Salisbury Center. He was a member of [the] Universalist church, the Dolgeville Masonic lodge, and past high priest of the Royal Arch Masons.

On August 20, 1901, he was married to Julia Mayo, who survives with two sons, Nelson, Canajoharie, and Francis, of Piedmont, Ohio; eight daughters, Mrs. Martin Simone, Steubenville, Ohio; Mrs. Walter Manz, Drexel Hill, Pa.; Mrs. Wallace Fish, Albany; Mrs. John Hessler, Mountain View, Calif.; Mrs. John Lasek, South Coventry, Conn.; Mrs. Howard Shaut, Mrs. Lloyd Timmerman and Mrs. Charles Chadwick, Dolgeville; one brother, Claude Hutt, Richester [Rochester?]; two sisters, Mrs. Harry Donwood, Ontario, N.Y., and Mrs. Carrie Durkee, Stockbridge, Vt.; 15 grandchildren and one great-grandchild; several nieces and nephews.

The funeral services will be held privately from the home this afternoon at 2, with Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton of the Universalist church officiating. Burial will be in the Dolgeville cemetery.

The Masonic lodge had charge of the committal services.
