MRS. CATHERINE HUYCK SUCCUMBS IN HERKIMER

Herkimer—Mrs. Catherine Huyck, 70, lifelong resident of this village, died at her home, 509 Dorf Street, following a shock [stroke] which she suffered Friday. Up to that time she had been in the best of health.

She was born in Hinckley, October 31, 1861 and came to Herkimer when a child. She married Seldon Huyck December 2, 1879 and they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 1929. Mr. Huyck died the following July.

Mrs. Huyck was a member of the Universalist church, Myrtle Chapter O.E.S., Ladies of the Maccabee, and the Daughters of Liberty, Iliion chapter. She was well known and beloved because of her many charitable acts.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Fred [Lula] Small, West Prospect Street, Iliion; a brother, Christian Michels, 1502 Whitesboro Street, Utica; a sister, Mrs. William Myers, 10 Jason Place, Utica.

The funeral, which is in charge of Martin Manlon, will be held Tuesday afternoon from her late home at 2, with Rev. W. H. Skeels officiating. Interment will be made at Oak Hill Cemetery.
