

[Ingraham, Clara Western]

MRS. THADDEUS INGRAHAM

[Dolgeville] Mrs. Thaddeus Ingraham passed away Tuesday night at her home on Elm street, after an illness of a year. She was born in the town of Salisbury 56 years ago and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Western, her maiden name being Clara Western. Thirty-three years ago to-day she was married to Mr. Ingraham. The couple had resided for many years just north of this village, in the town of Salisbury. Mrs. Ingraham was a member of the Universalist Church and of the Eastern Star Chapter of Julia Darling. She went West 37 years ago. Besides her husband [and] two sons, Earl and Percy, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. James E. Doxtader of this village and Mrs. Anna Vincent of Richfield Springs.

Herald-Dispatch, Utica NY, Thu. 15 Dec 1921

Transcribed on 18 Feb 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY