

[Ingraham, Thaddeus Frank]

T. F. INGRAHAM PASSES AT 89

Dolgeville—Thaddeus F. Ingraham, 89, died Monday night at his home at 42 Elm street. He had been in ill health for the last five years, but despite his advanced age, he was active until about three months ago, when he fell in his home. Mr. Ingraham was born on the former Ingraham farm, in the town of Salisbury, December 14, 1859, the son of William [Marvin] and Jane [Woolever] Ingraham.

In his earlier years he conducted the farm with his father. Later he became a teamster when the Dolgeville waterworks line was constructed. He played the drums with the old Salisbury Center band and the Dolgeville Citizens Cornet band and was an ardent baseball fan. Mr. Ingraham was married first to Clara Western in 1888 and she passed away in 1921. In 1923 he was married to the late Ruby Prait who passed away in 1947. Surviving are a step daughter, Mrs. Irving Barnes, R.D. 1, Little Falls and one niece, Mildred Hollaran of Syracuse.

Funeral services will be held today at 2 from the Nielson funeral home, Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton of the Universalist church officiating. Burial will be made in the Dolgeville cemetery.

Morning Herald, Gloversville NY, Thu. 9 Dec 1948

Transcribed on 9 Jan 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY