

[Ives, Harry C.]

HARRY C. IVES, EX-POSTMASTER

Salisbury—Harry C. Ives, 76, Town of Salisbury, died Feb. 21, 1959 at his home after a long illness.

He was born Dec. 15, 1882, in Salisbury, the son of Charles and Cornelia Fenner Ives. He married the former Mae Walrath in Little Falls, Oct. 30, 1918. The couple resided on the farm in which Mr. Ives was born. The house was built by Mr. Ives' great-grandfather.

He was postmaster for several years in the early 1900's when the post office was located in Cytley's store.

Mr. Ives attended the Universalist church in Salisbury Center and was the treasurer of Salisbury Rural Cemetery for over 20 years.

Besides his wife he leaves a son Everett of Salisbury; a grandson James, also of Salisbury, and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

The funeral will be at 2 Wednesday from his late home, with the Rev. Maurice Cobb, pastor of Salisbury Center Universalist Church, officiating.

Burial will be in Salisbury Rural Cemetery in the spring.
