

[Jacobie, Mary Morrison]

MRS. JACOBIE, 92, DIES IN HUDSON
Mother of Sheriff Was Native of Scotland; Services Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Jacobie, of 531 Warren st., Hudson, who died at Hudson city hospital Wednesday morning, will be held Friday. Interment will be in Hudson city cemetery.

Mrs. Jacobie was born in Scotland and came to this country as a small child. She grew up in Hollowville, attending schools there, and in Claverack, later moving to Hudson.

She was married to Thomas L. Saulpaugh, and following his death, to William H. Jacobie.

Mrs. Jacobie was a well known and highly respected resident of Hudson. She was for many years a devout member of the Universalist church in that city and after the discontinuance of that church, she headed the Universalist Society in Hudson [sic]. At the time of her death, she was 92 years old.

Mrs. Jacobie is survived by four sons, Sheriff Milton V. Saulpaugh, of Columbia County; Richard M. Saulpaugh, of Hudson; Thomas LeGrand Saulpaugh, of Glens Falls; and Edwin J. Saulpaugh of New York city. She also has two daughters, Miss Louella M. Saulpaugh, of Hudson; and Mrs. Clarence S. Ham, of Marblehead, Mass.; a sister, Mrs. Milton Vincent, of Petersburg, Virginia; a brother, Milard C. Morrison, of Brooklyn and several grandchildren.
