

[Jarvis, Lena H. Lindsay]

MRS. EDWIN M. JARVIS

The death of Lena H. Lindsay, wife of Edwin M. Jarvis, which occurred at her home near Fly Creek, Thursday morning, October 9th, as the result of a complication of diseases removes one of the beloved citizens of that locality who will be mourned by a large circle of friends. Mrs. Jarvis had been in poor health for four or five years.

Born in the vicinity of Fly Creek, July 26, 1876, she had resided there throughout her life with the exception of about two years which she spent in Hubbardsville, Chenango county. Her marriage to Mr. Jarvis took place February 4, 1896. She was a member of the Universalist church and until her health prevented was an active worker in the Grange. She also took a vital interest in the work of the Otsego County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and did her utmost to further its success.

Surviving besides the husband is one daughter, Phyllis L. Jarvis, aged thirteen years, and both husband and daughter have the sincere sympathy of all in their bereavement.

The funeral was held at the home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev Dr. T. F. Hall of Cooperstown officiating with interment on the Fly Creek Valley cemetery.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 17 Oct 1924

Transcribed on 9 Jan 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY