

[Jenkins, Gamaliel]

Jenkins

Gamaliel Jenkins, aged seventy-seven years, died at his home in Queensbury last night at eight o'clock. He is survived by one daughter, Anna Jenkins, and five sons, Clayton W. Jenkins, Parley [A.] Jenkins¹, Edwin Jenkins, Frederick Jenkins and Walter Jenkins, all of Queensbury. The funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

Glens Falls Daily Times, Glens Falls NY, Mon. 26 May 1902

Gamaliel Jenkins

The funeral of Gamaliel Jenkins was held yesterday afternoon at Queensbury, Rev. J. [James] D. Corby [Universalist] of Syracuse, officiating. The bearers were the five sons and a nephew, Palmer R. Jenkins, of the deceased. Interment in the Jenkins cemetery.

Glens Falls Morning Star, Glens Falls NY, Thu. 29 May 1902

Transcribed on 8 Nov 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY

¹ According to Parley's obituary in the Glens Falls Morning Star of 17 March 1909, he had lived in Yackandanda, Australia for 55 years at the time of his own death.