

Mrs. Lena Jennings, 67, Dies at Little Falls

Frankfort—Mrs. Lena B. Jennings, 67, Frankfort RD 2, died Jan. 10, 1951, in a Little Falls nursing home after an illness of several months. She was born in Pittsfield, N. Y., a daughter of the late Curtis and Helen Sabin Coggeshall and until she was forced to retire due to illness, she had been the cook for several months at the Eastern Star Home, Oriskany. Mrs. Jennings was married to John W. Jennings in 1906 in Pittsfield. He died in 1918. She attended the Universalist Church in Utica. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Mark Remington, RD 2, Frankfort; Mrs. Robert VanVoriss, East Greenbush; one sister, Mrs. Mabel Mettler, Norwich; two brothers, Lynn Coggeshall, Norwich, and Lee Coggeshall, Binghamton; four grandchildren; several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be conducted from the Surridge and Roberts Funeral Home, 144 Eagle St., Saturday at 10:30 a. m. with the Rev. John C. MacPhee officiating. Cremation in Waterville.

The Evening Telegram, Herkimer NY, Thu. 11 Jan 1951

Transcribed on 11 Nov 2021 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY