FUNERAL TRUMAN JENNINGS OF MIDDLEPORT TODAY

(By Special Wire to the Courier)

Lockport, May 22.—The funeral of Truman Jennings, sixty-four years old, who was president of the Middleport village for seven years, and died at his late residence there Saturday night, will be held tomorrow afternoon with the Rev. E. H. Carritt of the Universalist church, officiating. Burial will be in Mountain Ridge cemetery.

Mr. Jennings, who succumbed to an attack of apoplexy, was born and lived his entire life in Middleport. He was engaged for many things in the cooperage business, was an active Democrat, past master of Cataract lodge of Masons, and was a trustee for many years of Mountain Ridge cemetery. He leaves one sister, Mrs. James Filkins of Rochester, and one brother, George, of this city.
