

[Johnson, Albert E.]

Albert E. Johnson

Albert E. Johnson, son of Mrs. Harriet Johnson, of this village, died Saturday afternoon, May 11, 1908, at the Hahnemann hospital in Rochester. He had been suffering with a stomach difficulty for a long time, in fact was dangerously ill several months ago, but got better and resumed work.

He was again taken ill on Saturday, May 4, and an operation for ulcers of the stomach was performed at the above named hospital on Thursday last. He came out from the operation and hopes were entertained for his recovery, but in his weakened condition chances were against him, and on Saturday at about 1 o'clock he passed away.

His sister, Mrs. W. P. Shanley, of this place, was present at the operation, and his brother, Harry Johnson of Rochester, and friend, Miss Grace Bulkley of Savona were at his bedside when he died.

Deceased was born in Cohocton, March 19, 1880, and the greater part of his life had been spent here. After leaving the High school he learned the printer's trade in the office of the Times-Index. He became a good workman, and at the time of his last sickness was employed by the John P. Smith Printing Co., of Rochester.

He leaves beside his mother, one sister, Mrs. Wm. P. Shanley of this place, and four brothers, Carl of Buffalo, Harry of Rochester, Walter of Painted Post, and Hubert of this place.

The remains were brought to his home here and the funeral was held at the Universalist church at half past one Monday afternoon, Rev. Chas. E. Petty of Hornell conducting the services. Interment in Maple View cemetery.

Mr. Johnson was a member of the Hose Company and the following members of that company acted as bearers: B. W. Sutfin, J. W. Saunders, Louis and Edwin Strobel, Victor Phillips and Raymond Tharp.

As last tributes to his memory, beautiful floral pieces were sent by the Cohocton Hose Co., the Thursday Club, employees of the John P. Smith Printing Co., and employees of the Times-Index, and others from intimate friends at Savona and elsewhere.

The family feel deeply grateful for the acts of kindness shown them, also for the beautiful flowers, and wish herewith to express their appreciation and gratitude to their many friends.

The following from out of town were in attendance at the funeral:

Misses Grace and Eva Bulkley, John Bulkley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bulkley of Savona; Chas. Sparks of Corning; Miss Lula and Claude House of Kanona; Chas Mack, Mrs. Geo. Mack and Hubert Mack of Springwater; Mr. and Mrs. George Youngs of Wayland; Miss Nora Wilcox and Mrs. Luna Hill of Buffalo; Mrs. L. F. Drake of Corning; L. G. Jenks of Rochester; Oliver Johnson and Miss Lena Johnson of Ingleside; Elizabeth Shanley of Hammondsport; Albert Wilcox of Hornell.
