

[Johnson, Alfred B.]

ALFRED B. JOHNSON

Canandaigua, May 2—Alfred B. Johnson, 87, died at his home in Holcomb yesterday, as a result of pneumonia with which he was ill only a short time. He was born in Hopewell, and in (1868?) married Miss Mary Alice Love, of (Danville?), Pa., where the couple resided for several years. They also lived a few years at Williamsport, returning to this country and settling near Bristol, where they continued to live for thirty-five years. About twenty years ago they moved to Holcomb. Mr. Johnson was a carpenter. He leaves a wife who is now ill at the family home, three daughters, Mrs. Addie Fales, Mrs. Frank A. Jones and Miss Tillie Johnson, all of Holcomb, and two sons, Lester Johnson of Rochester and John Johnson of Cheshire, a brother, Charles Johnson of Canandaigua, two grandsons and a great-grandson. Funeral at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Johnson home at Holcomb, Rev. George A. Campbell, of the Bristol Universalist Church, officiating. Burial at Bristol.

Democrat & Chronicle, Rochester NY, Mon. 3 May 1926

Transcribed on 24 Sep 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY