

[Johnson, Daniel]

Died in Jerusalem Jan. 30th, 1871, Daniel Johnson, at the age of sixty-five years and five months. He has been twenty-two years a resident of Jerusalem having moved there in 1849, and was a quiet and much respected citizen. He had a large farm on lot 3 of the Beddoe Tract. He first married Catharine Johnson (not a relative) at Frankfort, Herkimer Co., and their children were George, William, Daniel and Frances. His wife died a few years ago, and he married a second wife, Ada Wing of Naples, who survives him. Before Mr. Johnson's removal to this county he was engaged in the foundry business at Rome, Oneida Co. At the time of his death he was a member of the Universalist Church at Branchport. George, his eldest son, is a merchant at Italy Hill. He married Samaria Smith and has two surviving sons, Westel and Fred. William is the Superintendent of the Lambertville Iron Works at Lambertville, New Jersey. He married Sarah Moore a native of England, and their children are Sarah F., William M., Frank L., Martha C., Gertrude, Herbert and Walter C. Daniel died at the age of seventeen. Frances is the wife of Thomas Stoddard of Jerusalem, and they have a daughter Kate.

Yates County Chronicle, Penn Yan NY, 23 Feb 1871

Transcribed on 9 Apr 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY