

[Johnson, Stephen]

SOUTH BRISTOL

Died, in South Bristol, June 21, 1901, Stephen Johnson, aged nearly 72 years. Mr. Johnson was born in Naples, N.Y., January 28, 1828, and was the oldest of eleven children born to Levi and Katy Johnston, six of whom survive. He was married to Eveline Parker February 20, 1860, and commenced the battles of life on a farm in Naples. Five children were born to them—Mrs. Frank Aldridge, of Bristol; Mrs. William Rowe, [and] Carnot; Carolton [Carlton] and Orson, of this town. They with his wife survive him. About nine years ago he purchased the Marquis Kauffman farm and moved thereon. He was a successful farmer, a pleasant neighbor, a kind husband, a good father and will be missed by all of his acquaintances. The funeral was held at his late residence June 24, Rev. F. F. Buckner [Universalist] officiating. Interment in Rose Ridge Cemetery, Naples.

June 24, 1901.
