CELESTINE A. JONES

Estimable Woman died This Morning After Illness of Several Months

Mrs. Celestine A. Jones died this morning at the home of Mrs. Caleb Davies, 1110 Summit place, after an illness of several months. A kind, gentle, charitable old lady, was the characteristic description of the deceased. She was always doing good for someone and in this beautiful manner she spent life in the joy of practical christianity.

She was born in Clinton 72 years ago and after the death of her husband a year ago this January she moved to this city, where she had since made her home. She was married seven years ago in Porto [Puerto] Rico, where she had made her home for many years. She was a member of the [Universalist] Church of the Reconciliation. She is survived by one step-sister, Elizabeth M. Miller of Cleveland. Stanton Miller of Deansboro is a nephew and the Misses Alice and Mary Hanchett of Deansboro are nieces, who survive, together with several other nieces and nephews.
