Miss Jane M. Jones, Rome Native, Dies in Utica

Utica, Jan. 18—Miss Jane M. Jones, 33, a native of Rome, and lately residing at 1539 Kemble St., Utica, died unexpectedly Saturday night.

Staff supervisor of the Utica Visiting Nurses' Association, Miss Jones was visiting with classmates of the Memorial Hospital Training School when she was stricken. Dr. H. J. Haberer, coroner, stated death was due to heart disease.

Miss Jones was born Aug. 10, 1909, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jones, and for the past 22 years had lived in Utica. She was graduated from Utica Free Academy and the Memorial Hospital Training School, and had also taken a special course in public health at Syracuse University.

For the past five years she had been with the Utica Visiting Nurses. She was a member of the Church of the Reconciliation [Universalist], where she also taught Sunday School. She was a member of the Memorial Alumnae Association.

Surviving besides her parents is a sister, Miss Gladys T. Jones, a nurse in the Cornell Medical Center, New York.
