MRS. FRED JONES, OF STRATFORD, DIES

Stratford—Mrs. Katie W. Jones, 67, of Stratford, died yesterday in Little Falls Hospital after a short illness.

She was born May 31, 1893 in Waterville, daughter of David and Nellie Miner Wilkinson.

She was married to Fred H. Jones on June 4, 1913, in Clinton.

The couple resided in Salisbury since 1923. Mrs. Jones was a member of the Salisbury Center Universalist Church and was treasurer of its Hand-in-Hand Society. She was also treasurer of the Church School.

Besides her husband she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Albert Grandinette, Utica, and Mrs. Elmer Barclay, Salisbury Center; two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Sweeney and Mrs. Irene Jones, both of Utica; three granddaughters, one grandson, five great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be at 2:30 Saturday from the Nielson Funeral Home, Dolgeville, with the Rev. Maurice Cobb, pastor of the Salisbury Center Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Stratford Cemetery.

Calling hours are tonight and tomorrow afternoon and evening.
