Mrs. Lina D. Jones

The death of Mrs. Lina D. Jones, widow of Delevan L. Jones, occurred Thursday afternoon at her home in Oaksville after several months of ill health. She rallied from a serious operation ten weeks ago in the Fox Memorial Hospital, Oneonta, and returned to her home about four weeks ago. Since that time, her decline has been rapid.

Mrs. Jones was the former Lina D. Johnson, only daughter of Richard P. and Martha (DeLong) Johnson of Oaksville, where she was born October 8, 1871, and most of her life was spent there. She married Mr. Jones December 11, 1895. He died July 6, 1914. After his death, Mrs. Jones lived for a time with her parents in Richfield Springs.

Surviving are the aged parents, two daughters, Mrs. Dean O. Rathbun of East Springfield and Mrs. C. J. Sheldon, Jr., of Nassau; one son, Robert P. Jones of Oaksville; three granddaughters, Jane and Ellen Rathbun, and Elizabeth Sheldon.

Mrs. Jones was a member of the Fly Creek Universalist church and for 10 years was church organist. She had also been a member of the Fly Creek Grange for over forty years.

The funeral will be held from the home at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Charles Kramer, pastor of the Church of the Messiah, Universalist, of this village, will officiate. Interment will be in the family plot in the Fly Creek cemetery.
