

[Keating, Charles S.]

C. S. Keating Dies at 82; Was Civil Engineer

Charles S. Keating, 82, of 268 Holland St., died yesterday in University Hospital after a long illness.

Born in Hudson, he was a resident of Syracuse for 49 years. He was employed as a civil engineer with the Syracuse Department of Engineering. He served as deputy city engineer under Nelson Pitts, former city engineer.

Mr. Keating was a member of the First Universalist Church. He was past president of the Technology Club of Syracuse, a member of the Syracuse Kiwanis Club, Konosioni Lodge F&AM, Central City Consistory, and the New York State Society of Professional Engineers.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Martha Shaw Keating; a son, Herbert S. Keating; two grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and a niece.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the chapel of the Fairchild & Meech Funeral Home, 500 W. Onondaga St., with the Rev. Porter J. Schermerhorn Jr. officiating. Interment will be in Oak Hill Cemetery, Herkimer.

Friends may call from 3 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. tomorrow at the funeral home.

Post Standard, Syracuse NY, Sun. 26 Aug 1962

Transcribed on 5 Jun 2016 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY