

[Kehoe, Joseph Thomas]

JOSEPH T. KEHOE

Little Falls—Joseph Thomas Kehoe died unexpectedly May 5, 1950, in his home, 566 Garden St., of a heart attack.

Mr. Kehoe was born Jan. 18, 1874, at Providence, R. I., son of Patrick and Martha Ellen Kilts Kehoe. He never married.

Mr. Kehoe was affiliated with the Universalist Church and was a member of Little Falls Lodge 180, F&AM.

He came to Little Falls when a young man and was employed at the Gilbert Knitting Co. as a spinner. He retired in December, 1948.

Surviving are a brother, William E. Kehoe, St. Cloud, Fla.; four sisters, Mrs. George W. Bellinger, Little Falls; Mrs. Carrie Shufelt and Miss Margaret E. Kehoe, both of Utica, and Mrs. Lester J. Garlock, Ilion.

The funeral will be at 2:30 this afternoon from Newitt Funeral Home, the Rev. Howard Gilman of the Universalist Church officiating. There also will be a Masonic rite conducted by Little Falls Lodge. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery, Herkimer.
