

[Keller, Emma Ecker]

Mrs. Charles L. Keller

Mrs. Charles L. [Emma] Keller of the town of Stark died Saturday at St. Luke's hospital in Utica, following an operation. Mrs. Keller was 50 years old. She was born in the town of Stark and was the daughter of David and the late Martha Countryman Ecker. She spent all her life in the town of her birth and was united in marriage there 29 years ago to Mr. Keller. The deceased was highly esteemed through her home neighborhood as a woman of exemplary character and was held in the highest regard by her hosts of admiring acquaintances, her death being deeply mourned. Mrs. Keller was affiliated with the Universalist church, having entered the church at Van Hornesville.
