HEART ATTACK FATAL

Lewis H. Keller, retired policeman, dies at home

Lewis H. Keller, 60 years old, a former member of the police department, died of a heart attack yesterday morning in his home at 411 Parkdale Avenue. He retired six years ago, after serving as a patrolman, a member of the auto squad and the mounted force for 22 years. Funeral services will be held in his home at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon with the Rev. Bruce Swift, pastor of the Universalist Church of the Messiah, officiating. Burial will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Keller came to Buffalo in 1885 from Salt Lake City, Utah, where he was born. Recently he had been employed as a private detective at Lang Field.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Margaret R. Keller; two daughters, Mrs. Ruth K. Brand and Mrs. Ethel M. Millring, and a son, Kenneth L. Keller.
