

[Kellogg, John]

COHOCTON

...John Kellogg died at his residence in this place, Saturday, March 29th, aged 75 years. Mr. Kellogg had been sick for along time. Another landmark has passed away. He was a member of the Masonic Order, and his funeral was held at the Universalist church Tuesday, under the auspices of Liberty Lodge No. 510, F. & A. M., sermon by Rev. Mr. Fisher¹, of Rochester...

Steuben Courier, Bath NY, Fri. 4 Apr 1884

Transcribed on 22 Apr 2016 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY

¹ Lewis Beals Fisher, minister at that time of the Second Universalist Society in Rochester.