

[Kellogg, Loana Rice]

Death of Mrs. Loana Kellogg, an Old Resident of Cohocton

Cohocton, Sept. 21.—In the death of Mrs. Loana Kellogg, which occurred last evening, after many weeks of painful illness, this town loses one of its most venerated ladies of advanced years. She was born in the town of Howard where her father, Seth Rice, settled nearly 100 years ago, when the country was a wilderness inhabited by Indians and wild beasts. Her first husband, Charles Higgins of her native town, having died some years after their marriage, she became the wife of the late John Kellogg, a leading resident of this town for many years, and had since resided in or near this village. She was a faithful and devoted Christian and was active and efficient in all good work, especially for the Universalist Church of which she was a valued and lifelong member.

Mrs. Kellogg is survived by her only daughter, Miss Ida R. Higgins, one brother, Seth Rice of Detroit, Mich., and one sister, Mrs. Amanda Smith of Canisteo.

Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester NY, Thu. 22 Sep 1904

Transcribed on 22 Apr 2016 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY

[Kellogg, Loana Rice]

MRS. LOANA KELLOGG
Death of an Estimable Cohocton Woman Last Week

After an illness of many weeks from a complication of diseases, Mrs. Loana Kellogg, one of the most highly esteemed ladies of this village, died at 10 o'clock Tuesday Sept. 20. The funeral will be held from the Universalist church at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, her pastor, the Rev. Clara Morgan, officiating. The burial will be at the cemetery in Howard. Mrs. Kellogg was born in the town of Howard in 1828, her father, Seth Rice, being one of the early settlers of the locality near the Howard pond. She was twice married, her former husband being Charles Higgins, by whom she had her surviving daughter, Miss Ida R. Higgins of this village. In the early '60's she married the late John Kellogg, a prominent resident of this town for many years, whose death occurred about 20 years ago. Mrs. Kellogg was a woman of devout Christian character and by her amiable disposition and womanly worth had endeared herself to a wide circle of friends. If very few persons indeed can it be more truthfully said—"She died without an enemy in the world."

Steuben Courier, Bath NY, Fri. 30 Sep 1904

Transcribed on 22 Apr 2016 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY