Mrs. Edith H. Kent Buried in Bristol

Bristol—Mrs. Edith Haney Kent, widow of Cortland Kent, was brought to Evergreen cemetery for burial on Tuesday. She was a former Bristol resident coming here from Allens Hill more than 50 years ago. Later she moved to Canandaigua where they lived for several years and then to Rochester where Mr. Kent died ten years ago. She had since lived in that area. While a resident here she was a faithful worker in the Universalist church and ladies society and a member of the church choir.
