

[Kent, John]

Canandaigua, N. Y.—The death of John Kent, a prominent resident of the town of Bristol, occurred at the home of his son, Frank H. Kent, Wednesday night, after a long illness. He was 70 years of age and had resided all his life in that town. He was an extensive farmer for many years and a large grower of hops. Upon his retirement his son succeeded to the management of the farm, which has been in the family for nearly a hundred years. In 1865 John Kent married Miss Celesta Mason, who with his son and one granddaughter, survives him. Mr. Kent was a Republican and had served as assessor for many years. He was an attendant at the Universalist church of Bristol.
