

[Kent, William J.]

William J. Kent

William J. Kent died at the Buffalo General Hospital Monday, where he underwent an operation the day before. His wife [Nina], who accompanied him to Buffalo, was with him when the end came. Besides his wife, he leaves one daughter, Bernice; two brothers, Town Clerk A. [Alfred] B. Kent of Nunda, and Carl B. Kent of Bowmanville, Canada. Mr. Kent was born in New Castle, Canada, fifty-five years ago and for the past eighteen years had been a resident of Nunda, engaged in the tailoring business. He was popular and well liked by a wide circle of friends, all of whom mourn his untimely death.

The funeral will be held at his late home, this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. L. [Louis] R. Lowry [Universalist] officiating, and burial will be made in Oakwood cemetery.
