

[Kenward, Rosetta Corser]

MRS. RALPH KENWARD

Mrs. Ralph Kenward, 55, died Friday at her home on the Marshall Road after a long illness. A lifelong resident of this vicinity, she was a member of the Ridgeway Universalist Church.

Surviving are her husband; one son, Pfc. Louis Kenward, home on furlough from an Army hospital in West Virginia, following wounds received while fighting in France; four brothers, Leon Corser of Middleport, George Corser of County Line Road, Arthur Corser of Alberta, Canada, and Floyd Corser of Barker and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, Rev. George Gay officiating. Burial was in West Ridge Cemetery.
