

[Kenyon, Granville G.]

Granville G. Kenyon

CENTRAL SQUARE, Aug. 5—Granville G. Kenyon, 66 years old, died at his home a mile south of this village after a long sickness on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Kenyon was born in the town of Hastings and spent his entire life in this section, following the occupation of farming. Mr. Kenyon was a member of the local grange.

Besides his widow, he is survived by a son, Perry Kenyon, of Brewerton, and two grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at his late home at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, the Rev. Dr. Francis [Frederick] Betts, pastor of the First Universalist church, Syracuse, officiating. Burial will be made in Hillside cemetery.
