

[Kenyon, Jason]

Jason Kenyon

Jason Kenyon, eighty-seven years old, of Central Square, died at the home of his niece, Mrs. Theodore Delancey, on the South New Haven road, town of Scriba, at five o'clock yesterday afternoon. He had been visiting there and was stricken with pneumonia five days ago.

Mr. Kenyon was for many years a prominent resident of the town of Hastings. He went out to the Civil War in Company E, 110th New York Regiment. Returning he was a prosperous farmer. He was an assessor of the town for several terms, a member of the G.A.R. and a communicant of the Universalist church, Central Square, where the funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. One son, Herbert P. Kenyon, of Altmar, survives.
