

[Killam, Isaac]

Suddenly Summoned

Isaac Killam died very suddenly during Wednesday night at his home three and one half miles southwest of this village in this town. Mr. Killam had not been ill and the news of his death came as a surprise and shock to his friends. He had been to this village on Wednesday and was in his usual health. After he partook of his supper he read the papers and hunted out some local papers which he expected to send away and started to prepare for bed at about 9 o'clock, when he was suddenly taken ill and suffered a shock of apoplexy. His condition was at once serious and he expired at about midnight. Mr. Killam had resided in this town for over forty years and was most highly esteemed. Many friends will mourn his death. He was kindly in manner and ever ready and willing to do for others. He was quiet in taste and a home loving man. Although he was interested in public affairs he had never taken an active interest in them. He was a kind neighbor and friend and a good man in his home. Mr. Killam moved from this village back to his farm two years ago this spring.

Isaac Killam was born in Webster on September 29, 1840 and was in the seventy-first year of his life. He was married forty-five years ago to Miss Julia Frost, of this town. For a short time they resided in the town of Greece before coming here, where they had since lived. Besides his wife two children survive, Miss Catherine and Stephen Killam, both of this town. Two sisters also survive, Mrs. Charles Baker of Milford, Delaware and Mrs. Howard Blanchard of Washington, D.C.

The funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family home. Rev. Edwin P. Wood, pastor of the Universalist church, will officiate, assisted by Rev. W. H. Skeels of Utica, a former pastor. Interment will be made in the Boughton Hill cemetery.
