

[Kimball, Fred]

Fred Kimball Killed.

Word has just been received here this morning that Fred Kimball, recently of this village, was killed by the [train] cars near Clyde last evening. No particulars are yet learned. He recently secured a position on the R W. & O. Railroad as brakeman, and was returning to work from a visit to his family. His wife is a daughter of A. B. [Almon and Elvira] Fargo, of Clarendon, and is at present staying with her parents. She has an infant child [Laura] only a few days old.

Clarendon

Fred Kimbal [sic] who was killed by the cars near Clyde last Wednesday morning, was a man reared in South Clarendon, where he was respected by all. Last spring he moved his family to Holley, where he worked for a time on the railroad as a section hand; but when they made a cut in the force he was laid off, and has been working at odd jobs ever since. He had secured a job on the Lake Shore [rail]road and had started for Syracuse to commence work when he met his death. His age was thirty years and he leaves a wife [Ida] and three children [Harry, Maurice and Laura], one born on the 5th, a father, Byron Kimbal[1], a brother and sister, all of Byron. The remains were brought to Holley Friday morning and the funeral was held at the Universalist church Sunday at 11 a.m. The sympathy of the whole town goes out to the bereaved wife in this her great sorrow.

Clarendon

The funeral of Fred Kimball, who met such a tragic death at Clyde last week, was held at the Universalist church last Sunday at 11 o'clock, Rev. H. [Herbert] P. Morrell officiating. His death was a great shock to his family and this community. We have not at this writing learned the facts regarding the accident which caused his death. We sincerely hope that the good people of this vicinity will extend the hand of sympathy with something substantial therein to the wife and three small children of the deceased. The bereaved family requested the writer to thank the many friends through this column who did so much for them in their time of need, not forgetting Berton Keys, who did so much for them and asked so little in return.
