

[King, Jessie M.]

Briefs.

Between 6 and 7 o'clock Friday morning Miss Jessie M. King, daughter of Henry U. King, who resides near Orleans, was found dead in her room, having committed suicide by hanging. Although she had been somewhat despondent of late on account of ill health, the family had no suspicion that she contemplated taking her life. Coroner Howe was notified but an inquest was deemed unnecessary. Rev. O. M. Hilton [Universalist] officiated at the funeral, which was held at the house on Sunday afternoon.
