

[King, William F.]

WILLIAM F. KING

Death claimed another old resident this morning when William F. King passed away at his home, No. 37 Nelson street. He was in his 84th year. For a year past Mr. King has been in failing health and for the past four weeks has been confined to his bed.

Mr. King was born in the town of Owasco September 27, 1828, and since his youth had resided in Auburn. For 43 years he had lived in the house where he died. He was a contracting carpenter and builder and erected many structures in Auburn. He retired from active business about 25 years ago.

He is survived by two sons, Charles W. and Eugene King of this city, one daughter, Mrs. John Lee of Fulton, and one granddaughter, Mrs. Florence Chase Dumont of Haverhill, Mass. Funeral services will be held at his late residence Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Arnold S. Yantis, pastor of the First Universalist church, will officiate and burial will be made in the family plot in Soule cemetery.
