

[Kingsbury, Mary Converse]

DEATHS.

In Brighton, Lorain county, Ohio, last April 28th, Mrs. MARY KINGSBURY, aged 21 years, consort of Solomon D. Kingsbury, and daughter of Henry and Mary Converse, formerly of Edmeston, Otsego county, N.Y. Although afflicted with a protracted and distressing illness, during which she was called to mourn the loss of an infant child, and to encounter the enemies of her faith, yet her fortitude never forsook her until the grasp of life had fully expired. Such was her confidence in her divine protector, that she seemed "to rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory" as her dissolution gradually approached... She calmly waited her Master's call with pious resignation and holy joy. The funeral was attended on the following Sunday by a numerous concourse of sympathizing friends, to whom the consolations of the Gospel were tendered by the writer from these words—"This mortal must put on immortality."

We are happy in being able to assure her numerous friends and relatives at the East, that she died as she had lived, a firm believer in the final holiness and consequent happiness of all God's intelligent offspring. She has gone where we soon shall follow.

H. P. Sage

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Fri. 22 Sep 1837
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 25 Sep 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY