Albert E. Kingsley

The funeral of Albert E. Kingsley, a former resident of this city, who died in Boston on Saturday, was held this morning at 11 o'clock from Cassidy's funeral parlors, 41 Genesee street, the Rev. Dana W. Bigelow, pastor of the Memorial Presbyterian Church, officiating. The interment was made in Forest Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Kingsley was born in Utica 65 years ago, the son of Thomas L. and Julia B. Kingsley, and attended schools here, later becoming associated with his father in the clothing business which bore his name. With the death of his father about (?) years ago [in 1869], he retired and moved to Boston, where he had since made his home with his son, Burt Kingsley. Forty-five years he was united in marriage to Miss Blanche L. Slocum, and of the union four children were born. Of these, two sons, George and Albert, and one daughter Nellie died in infancy. Mr. Kingsley attended the Universalist Church while a resident here. Surviving are his son, Burt Kingsley of Boston; a brother, Louis [Lewis] Kinsley of Camden, and three sisters, Mrs. Mary L. Ney and Mrs. John P. Vidvard of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. F. O. Manchester of this city, and one nephew, Thomas Kingsley, also of Utica.
