

[Kingsley, Ida]

MISS KINGSLEY DIED SATURDAY AT N. STOCKHOLM

Winthrop, Feb. 21.—Winthrop friends feel a keen loss in the death Saturday afternoon of Miss Ida Kingsley, who passed away at the home of her nephew, Burr Kingsley, at North Stockholm. Miss Kingsley was stricken with pneumonia many weeks ago and her frail health prevented her recovery. She was born in North Stockholm,, one of nine children of Harmon and Asemath Bradley Kingsley. She taught school for many years and her former pupils have only praise for her ability as a teacher and her strict adherence to the right.

Miss Kingsley was a loyal member of the Winthrop Universalist church and lived her religion seven days of the week. Her last attendance at a local service was a very stormy night in November, when few ventured out, but she and her niece made the eighteen mile drive in a snow storm and over slippery roads. She gave money to the church, which purchased most of the furnishings for the dining room and kitchen for Social Hall and gave generously at all times to the support of the church. She was most appreciative of any kindness or favor shown her.

Four brothers and three sisters have preceded her in death—James, Willis, Archie and John Kingsley, Mrs. Justus (Ella) Smith, Mrs. Oscar (Emma) Osgood and Miss Ola Kingsley.

Miss Kingsley is survived by one brother, Maurice Kingsley, of North Stockholm; three nieces and three nephews, Mrs. Alton (Inez) Barlow, Dickinson Center; the Misses Doris and Fay Kingsley and Glenwood, Irving and Burr Kingsley, all of North Stockholm, and one grandnephew and one grandniece, Maurice Barlow, Dickinson Center, and Jane Kingsley, North Stockholm.

Services were held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burr Kingsley, with interment in the family lot in Hale cemetery.

Courier-Freeman, Potsdam NY, Wed. 21 Feb 1940