

[Kirkpatrick, George W.]

MACEDON

[Macedon, Feb. 8]. George W. Kirkpatrick, a former resident of Macedon, passed away on Wednesday [3 Feb] at the Friendly Home in Rochester at the age of about 80 years. For several years he resided here and was interested in the drill works. He was a member of the local Universalist church. He had been a resident of the Friendly Home for about a year. Surviving relatives are one son, Lyman Kirkpatrick; a grand-daughter, Miss Helen Kirkpatrick; and one step-daughter, Mrs. Mollie Bagley. Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon [5 Feb] from the Home and burial was made in Riverside cemetery.

Herald-Mail, Fairport NY, Thu. 11 Feb 1932

Transcribed on 11 Mar 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY