Funeral of Miss Kiska

The funeral of Miss Helen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin [and Vincentia] Kiska, took place from the family residence on [illegible] 2 o'clock, a large number of friends being in attendance. Rev. [Arthur] W. Grose of the Universalist church, of which denomination deceased was a member, officiated. Interment was at Mount Albion. Miss Kiska was a young lady who was possessed of many fine traits of character; a loving, and dutiful daughter, an affectionate and thoughtful sister, a kind and considerate friend. She will be greatly missed by those who knew her well... Miss Kiska, while still in the springtime of life, growing weary by the wayside, laid down amidst the scent of the sweet and precious flowers she had strewn along the pathway of those she loved, and passed to her eternal rest.
