

[Kittredge, Hattie A.]

Rites Scheduled For Retired Teacher

MIDDLEPORT, Feb. 25—A retired teacher, Hattie A. Kittredge, who for more than 25 years taught the Middleport Teacher Training Class, died Monday at her home, 8 North Main St.

Born in Middleport in 1865, the daughter of Ezra and Ann Howe Kittredge, Miss Kittredge spent most of her life in this village. She was a member of the Universalist Church and the Women's Missionary Society. Teaching for several Summers at Albany State Teachers College, she retired and spent many Winters in St. Petersburg. Miss Kittredge is survived by several cousins.

Services will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock at her home with the Rev. Gale Bascombe, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in LeValley Cemetery, Middleport.

Union-Sun & Journal, Lockport NY, Wed. 25 Feb 1948

Transcribed on 22 Jul 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY