

[Klock, Byron A.]

Minden

Byron A. Klock, a well known farmer of the town of Danube, died June 28. Mr. Klock's illness extended over a year and the cause of his death was due to heart trouble. He was born in the town of Danube in the year 1851 and was the son of Reuben Klock. He was a member of the Grange and was held in high esteem by a large number of friends. Besides his wife [Martha Christman Klock] he is survived by three sons, Arthur of New Haven, Reuben of Danube and Kenneth, who lived with his parents, a brother Elmer of Minden, and three sisters, Mrs. Charles [Iantha] Zoller and Mrs. Frazier [Alice] Showerman of Minden and Mrs. George [Mary] Spoor of Newville. The funeral was held from the home Friday, Rev. George A. Gay [Universalist] of Little Falls officiating. The remains were taken to Little Falls for burial in Fairview cemetery.
