

[Klock, Emogene Yale]

OBITUARY

Mrs. Emogene Klock, widow of the late Sylvester Klock, died Thursday afternoon, in her 76th year. She was born in Salisbury, the daughter of Wallace and Mary Yale. Mr. and Mrs. Klock came here to live 46 years ago, taking up their residence at 191 Loomis street where Mrs. Klock died. She was a member of the Universalist church and a most kind hearted, amiable woman, beloved by many friends. She was the mother of Albert Y. Klock, who died 17 years ago, and of Jesse Klock, whose death occurred three years ago last October. The surviving relatives are one brother, Lucius B. Yale of Bertha, Minn; an adopted sister, Mrs. Mary Spencer, of Seattle, Wash.; a grandson, Burt VanBuren Klock of this city; and a nephew, Eugene Murray, also of this city. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, Rev. H. M. Cary officiating.
