

[Knapp, Sarah]

Obituary.

Died, in this village, at the residence of Mrs. N. V. Mundy, last Saturday morning, Miss Sarah Knapp, aged 93 years and one day. Deceased was born in Warsaw, Wyoming Co., N.Y. Her father was Daniel Knapp, a revolutionary soldier. She had lived mostly at Warsaw until 3 months ago, when she came to reside with her niece, Mrs. Mundy, who has tenderly cared for her. She was in her usual health until the evening before, when she complained of distress in her head and the next morning she was unconscious and remained so until the end. Miss Knapp identified herself with the Universalist church in early life and led an exemplary Christian life. Having a pleasant, genial disposition, she was unusually esteemed by all who knew her. She was a great reader and was well versed in the bible and could always give reasons for the beliefs she held. She was a paid subscriber to the Universalist Leader for 73 years. She read current literature and took much interest in passing events. Hers was a life which makes for the betterment of mankind. Her nearest living relatives are five nephews, James B. Knapp, of Washington, D.C., Seymour, Homer, Daniel and James Babcock, and three nieces, Mrs. Lucia A. Baker, of Buffalo, Mrs. Egbert Gors, of Dixon, Tenn., Mrs. Mundy, of this village. Her remains were taken to Warsaw Sunday morning for burial.

Canaseraga Times, Canaseraga NY, Fri. 20 Jan 1904

Transcribed on 16 Oct 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY