

[Knight, George W.]

DEATH OF GEORGE W. KNIGHT

Webster, June 9—George W. Knight, an old resident of this village, died at his home in Main St., Friday night. He was born in this town November 2, 1833, a son of Nathaniel and Mary Robb Knight, pioneers of this town, who settled here in the year 1817. Mr. Knight was educated in Webster, and resided on the farm on which he was born on Phillips road until six years ago when he retired, since which time he has resided in the village. In 1862 he enlisted in Reynolds Battery and served several years in the war. He leaves one brother, James M. Knight; two nephews, George L. Knight, of Boise, Idaho, and Dayton R. Knight, of Auburn; one niece, Miss Mary G. Knight, of Webster. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2:30 from the house and was conducted by the Masonic fraternity. Rev. Donald Fraser officiated. Burial took place at Union cemetery, in Webster.

The Herald, Fairport NY, Wed. 11 Jun 1913

(WEBSTER NEWS)

The funeral of George W. Knight, whose death occurred Friday at his home on Main street, after an illness of about two weeks, was held Monday from the house, Rev. Donald Fraser, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating. The services at the grave were in charge of the Masonic order. Mr. Knight was born on the Phillips road in this town, November 2, 1833, and resided there until about six years ago, when the family moved to this village. He was a son of the late Nathaniel and Mary Knight. Mr. Knight served his country in the Civil War, enlisting in Reynolds Battery, Light Artillery. Surviving relatives are his twin brother, Jay Knight; two nephews, George L. Knight of Boise, Idaho, and Dayton R. Knight of Auburn; and one niece, Miss Mary Knight of this village.

Monroe County Mail, Fairport NY, Thu. 12 Jun 1913