

[Knight, William]

WILLIAM KNIGHT

William Knight, formerly a well known resident of Mottville, and later of Baptist Corners, died Thursday in Oklahoma, where he had been visiting. Details were lacking today. Burial will be made Monday afternoon in Soule Cemetery, following funeral services in Skaneateles at 2 o'clock that afternoon. Rev. Plato T. Jones, pastor of First Universalist Church, Auburn, of which Mr. Knight was a member, will officiate. Mr. Knight was a carpenter and for some time was employed in a mill at Mottville.
