

[Kuehnle, William H.]

W. H. Kuehnle Dies at Age 61

Salisbury Center—William H. Kuehnle, 61, who operated a grocery store here the past 32 years, died Sunday in his home.

Mr. Kuehnle was active in the Little Falls Elks Lodge 42, of which he was a trustee and past exalted ruler. He also was a past district deputy of Central District.

He was a member of the Salisbury Center Universalist Church, the Salisbury Center Grange, a past treasurer and present member of the Board of Fire Commissioners of Salisbury Center Volunteer Fire Department. He was born in Salisbury Center.

He was a past president of the Herkimer County Volunteer Firemen's Association.

Besides his wife, the former Edith Burrell, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Mary Tibbetts [Tibbitts], Salisbury Center and Miss Ethel Kuehnle, Utica and two brothers, Donald, Salisbury Center and Arthur, Little Falls.

The funeral will be conducted at 2 tomorrow from the Nielsen Funeral Home, Dolgeville, by the Rev. Maurice Cobb, pastor of Salisbury Center Universalist Church. Burial will be in Salisbury Rural Cemetery.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Tue. 8 May 1962

Transcribed on 13 Feb 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY