

[Lamphear, Emma J. Hollister]

MRS. EMMA H. LAMPHEAR

Mrs. Emma H. Lamphear passed on to the Higher Life, March 14, at the home of her step-daughter, Mrs. C. A. [Ida] Moulton, Dolgeville [Herkimer Co. NY]. The shock of a fall, five weeks previous, and the infirmities of age were the causes of her death. Mrs. Lamphear was born November 5, 1855, at Hartsville, Mass., the daughter of the late James and Jane A. Hollister. She was united in marriage to the Rev. DeWitt Lamphear on Dec. 9, 1924. In September, 1931, Mr. and Mrs. Lamphear came from Canton [NY] to make their home with the Rev. and Mrs. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton. Mr. Lamphear died in Dec., 1931. Mrs. Lamphear was a fine type of womanhood and lived a beautiful life. She endeared herself to many local friends in her short residence in Dolgeville. She is survived by the following step-children: Mrs. William J. [Mary Minerva Lamphear] Metz, Dexter, Me.; Blair D. and Leonard B. of Rome, N.Y.; and Mrs. C. A. Moulton. Prayer services were held at the home and were conducted by Rev. Fred C. Leining, D.D. The body was placed in the local vault and in the spring will be taken to Hartsville, Mass., for burial¹.
