

[Lansom, Charlotte S.]

DEATHS.

At Sandy Hill, December 12th, Miss CHARLOTTE S. LAMSON, daughter of Jonas Lamson of that place, aged 16 years. Death came to her in the tardy paced, but fatal guise of consumption. Br. Lamson, in communicating her decease, says—"This makes five daughters [Ann Eliza, Betsey, Caroline and Dotha] and my wife [Betsey] that I have lost by consumption in less than five years! But I still can say, as did good old Job—"Though He slay me, yet will I trust in him.'" Truly can Br. Lamson say thus, for he believes that He who has thus bereaved him is "good unto all," and will appoint him, and his children, and his departed companion, no divided fate in the other world. May God continue thus to bless the mourners with his consolations.

A. B. G. [Aaron Bort Grosh]

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Fri. 8 Jan 1841
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 9 Sep 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY