

[Lamson, Dotha T.]

DEATHS.

At Sandy Hill, on the 13th of February ult., Miss DOTHA T., daughter of Mr. Jonas Lamson, aged 25. We enjoyed the happiness of an acquaintance with the amiable subject of this notice while living. The following is but a well deserved tribute to her memory, which we cut from the Sandy Hill Herald. "She was the idol of many and the friend of all. None knew her but to admire her goodness, none mentioned her but to exalt her virtues." "Her death will be universally lamented, for envy or malice never exerted their power to claim her as a victim." She died in the full possession of her mental faculties, and calmly leaning upon the "Saviour of all," and the promise of a Father's grace, she met the king of terrors without a murmur or a fear. Deeply, very deeply, do we sympathise with the parents, and relatives and friends of the deceased, and fervently do we pray that the rich consolations of the Gospel of peace may be theirs.—Union.
